

CELEBRATION OF WORLD PANGOLIN DAY
AT NANDANKANAN ZOOLOGICAL PARK, 15TH FEBRUARY 2020

Interaction with visitors regarding Pangolin Conservation.

Quiz Competition on Pangolin

Interaction with School Children

Signature Campaign

MESSAGE

The World Pangolin Day, 2020 was observed at Nandankanan Zoological Park on 15th February 2020 where Sri Jayant Kumar Das, Deputy Director, Nandankanan Zoological Park, Dr Siba Prasad Parida, HOD, Dept of Zoology, Centurian University, and Sri Amulya Kumar Parida, ACF (VM), Nandankanan Zoological Park has addressed the gathering as Guest of Honour. The celebration was observed with a mass awareness programme amongst the visitors, students from different schools, students from different universities, guides and staffs of Nandankanan with a message for pangolin conservation. An open quiz competition was conducted amongst the visitors on the theme was “Pangolin & Me”. The prizes have been distributed to the 25 number of winners. Dr S.P. Parida was attended as Guest of Honour in the occasion and emphasized the leading role of the students to motivate the people of surroundings and their involvement to protect the precious species from extinction which is already found place in the Red List of IUCN as “Endangered” for extinction. Finally, a signature campaign was organized to raise the awareness amongst the visitors.

Deputy Director
Nandankanan Zoological Park